

Meeting Helpers

Toastmasters International: Where Leaders Are Made

Prepared and edited by Andrew M. Bott

fytc.cars85.com

Quiz Master Notes

Quiz Master's Opening Speech:

Good evening. It's Quiz Time!

I'm _____ and I have 10 prizes to give away.

Who wants one?

Question number 1: Q) In _____'s speech, _____?

Thank you. 😊

Quiz Session Goals:

The quiz session [QS], about 10-15 minutes, is an FYTC specialty that is usually scheduled at the end of the meeting.

The QS provides more opportunity for quieter members to speak out.

Listen carefully to any of the presenters of the meeting and write down any interesting or special points of the meeting.

- 10 prizes.
- Prepare 11 or 12 questions.
- Organize your questions well and write your questions clearly before the Quiz Session. The meeting can quickly lose its flow and joyful momentum while the audience waits for the quiz master to find a suitable question. ☹
- Not all questions need to be serious. Make some questions really fun!
- Members and guests may win prizes.
- Make sure each person only wins one prize.
- Prizes only awarded to people with the exact answer.
- Congratulate the winners, make it exciting.
Yes --> Well done. Fantastic! Great! You're a good listener!
- Appoint an assistant to give out the prizes to maintain an exciting pace to the session.